Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

Petersburg. Va., September 11, 1890.

The Merchants Tobacco Company recently organized and chartered by the Circuit Court of this city has commenced its work, and was a bidder and buyer at the sales of bright tobacco yesterday. The company will deal mostly in bright tobaccos, and will use every possible effort to build up the market here for the flue-cared grades. The sales of brights have been arranged exclusively for Wednesday of each week.

GENERAL NOTES.

The census enumerators have not yet been paid by the Government for their services in taking the late census. Many of them are men in very moderate circumstances and they need the money. The cause of the delay is said to be due to the system of paying off by States alphabetically—Virginia coming almost last in the list of States.

The special enumerator appointed to take the manufacturing and industrial statistics in Petersburg is still engaged in his arduous duties. He has found many more small industrial plants than he had any

The reports that ill feeling against General Lee would cause a large falling off in the Democratic vote in the lower counties of this district is emphatically denied by prominent gentlemen from that section. They say that instead of General Lee being unpopular his popularity is to-day higher than it ever was before, and that he will poll a much larger vote in Louisa and King George than he ever did before. and King George than he ever did before. A. J. WEDDERBURN ARRESTED.

Mr. Alexander J. Wedderburn, publisher of the National Farm and Fiveside, was arrested here yesterday afternoon by Deputy United States Marshal Hawkhurst on a charge of having violated the United States postal laws. This arrest grows out of the discontinuance of the post-office at Grange Camp, of which Mr. Wedderburn was postmaster, and whose course in that office is now undergoing investigation before a congressional committee. Mr. Wedderburn was taken before United States Commissioner Toweler, before whom he gave bond in $1,500 to appear at the next term of the United States Court.

Alexandera, September 11, 1890.

There is a rumor going the rounds that Mr. Hume will be out in a card in a day or two announcing his independent candidacy for Congress, and that it will certainly appear before the meeting of the Republican nominating convention at Manassas on the 18th of this month.

The impression that the Republicans of the district will make no nomination but will accept General Mahone's plan of allowing the election to go by default is growing stronger every day, as one by one the prominent Republicans of this section put themselves on record as being in favor of this plan.

[Correspondence of the Richmon4 Disputch.] From the expressions of prominent Republicans from various portions of the Second district in the anti-Bowden convention last night it is very evident there NORFOLK, September 11, 1890. will be considerable defection in the party on account of Congressman Bowden seeking renomination. Many Republicans in various counties have declared that they will be considerable defection in the party various counties have declared that they would rather have no congressman than see Mr. Bowden returned. This seems notably the case in Southampton and in the Peninsula counties, where eyen the census enumerators have been used to "whoop up" the interests of Bowden among the colored voters. Some people seem to think that Mahone is giving the anti-Bowden movement a considerable backing, but if so he has not yet shown his hand. would rather have no congressman than
